SEPTEMBER

Terry Fox Day

The Terry Fox Run is an annual non-competitive fundraising event held in Terry Fox's name to support cancer research. It began after Terry Fox, a young Canadian athlete diagnosed with bone cancer, decided to run across Canada to raise money for research.

Art and Aging Day

Celebrating art and aging acknowledges the positive impact of creative activities on the well-being of older adults. It highlights how engaging with arts, whether through participation or observation, can enhance physical, mental, emotional, social, and spiritual well-being.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, observed on September 30th, is a day to honour the children who never returned home from residential schools, the survivors, their families, and communities.

Special Events

- Wine and Cheese – September 5th
- Tea Party – September 12th
- Movie and Popcorn – September 14th (Terry Fox Special)
